Roland Kern

Member of the Executive Board of Delvag Versicherungs-AG

Roland Kern, born on 15 July 1965, has been a member of the Management Board of Delvag Versicherungs-AG and a member of the management of Albatros Versicherungsdienste GmbH since 1 July 2019.

Roland Kern began his professional life with an apprenticeship as a banker at Deutsche Bank. There he worked for about 22 years in various positions in sales as well as product and risk management. During his time at Deutsche Bank he completed his studies to become a state-certified business economist.

From 1999 to 2006, Kern was a senior consultant advising companies – like Deutsche Lufthansa in the “Finance Cockpit” project - and the public sector on risk management methods and organization.

Roland Kern began his career at Lufthansa Group in August 2006 as Head of Group Treasury. Until 2014, he was responsible for cash management, liquidity and risk management as well as asset management and pension funds. During this time Roland Kern introduced, among other things, new corporate finance and hedging strategies and pushed the expansion of the Lufthansa pension models in the context of company pension schemes.

In 2014, Roland Kern moved to the Lufthansa subsidiary AirPlus, where he was Managing Director until mid-2018, with particular responsibility for Finance, IT, Operations, Global Services and Regulatory & Risk. During this time Roland Kern drove the further development of AirPlus International into a powerful and innovative financial service provider. In July 2018, he was appointed General Representative for Delvag Versicherungs-AG and appointed a member of the Executive Board with effect from July 1, 2019.

Roland Kern is married.
